Managing Personal Resources, Grade 11 Workplace Preparation (HIP3E)

This course prepares students for living independently and working successfully with others. Students will learn to manage their personal resources (including talent, money, and time), to develop interpersonal skills, and to understand economic influences on workplace issues, in order to make wise and responsible personal and occupational choices. The course emphasizes the achievement of expectations through practical experiences and introduces students to skills used in researching and investigating resource management. Prerequisite: None Alexander Henry, Elliot Lake only

Parenting, Grade 11 Open (HPC30)

This course focuses on the skills and knowledge needed to promote the positive and healthy nurturing of children, with particular emphasis on the critical importance of the early years to human development. Students will learn how to meet the developmental needs of young children, communicate and discipline effectively, and guide early behaviour. They will have practical experiences with infants, toddlers, and preschoolers, and will learn skills in researching and investigating questions relating to parenting. Prerequisite: None All schools except Bawating, Chapleau, Elliot Lake and Hornepayne

General Social Science

Introduction to Anthropology, Psychology, and Sociology, Grade 11 University/College Preparation (HSP3M)

This course introduces the theories, questions, and issues that are the major concerns of anthropology, psychology, and sociology. Students will develop an understanding of the way social scientists approach the topics they study and the research methods they employ. Students will be given opportunities to explore theories from a variety of perspectives and to become familiar with current thinking on a range of issues that have captured the interest of classical and contemporary social scientists in the three disciplines. Prerequisite: None Bawating, CASS, Elliot Lake, Michipicoten, SJD and White Pines only. Also offered as part of the French Immersion Program at SJD.
